A Record Breaker

Although this year's Raiders did not shine in victories, yet in scoring points, first downs, and spirit, they sparkled. They kicked off the season by tying Hingham 12-12 only to be edged out by Dedham 7-6, the following Saturday. The boys suffered our traditional romp from the Maroons the following week, but bounced back brilliantly by trouncing Norwood and Belmont in their next two challenges.

The spirit of the entire school was keyed up to the tune of — "North over Milton." However, the outcome was heartbreaking as the Whiz kids came through one point better in the finale. The following Saturday we entertained Chelsea and gave a show of hard fighting combined with skill not displayed in such quantity at any earlier challenge. Although a touchdown short, we had gained a moral victory! Not losing this spirit shown the Chelsea boys, the team ran crazy over the Wamps to achieve their highest point total all season. Then came the one we most deserved; statistics prove we outplayed the boys from the other end of the city in every possible way but touchdowns. We scored more touchdowns than any other North Quincy team has ever scored against Quincy.

However, we soon found that the year's scraping was not in vain; the week following the close of the season, Phil Bergamo was chosen as South Shore all scholastic left half back and Joe Crowley as South Shore school boy scoring king. So the banquet found the boys eating well, but why then shouldn't they? — They merited more than a dinner — a hard luck, tough-fighting, record-breaking team!

BASKETBALL

Race Down the Floor

This year's varsity squad deserves much more credit than they have been given thus far by anyone; their talents have not been rewarded by points, but everyone knows their schedule has been a tough one, each opponent a top notcher in his own league. The Raiders opened their season by edging out the Arlington quintet by one point, with Elkhill collecting 20. The following Tuesday night at Natick Deneen sparked the boys with his 23, and they came through on top once more.

In the next few matches the N. Q. boys were not as lucky. The Quincy game was a heartbreaking one, for despite Don Ames' 13, they were unable to pull through, but the score was close enough to show the Prexies that we are more than capable of running with their defense when we meet them in our gym for our closing challenge. Braintree proved to be a breather, and we walked safely away with a 62-45 victory. The following Friday night, Higgins collected 16 points worth of rebounds, but we failed to catch up to the spirited Bishops. We dropped a few more, losing a breather to Brockton to return the next week and once again run wild over the desperate Wamps. Breingan's 17 made it possible for us to walk away with another win, from Thayer Academy.

Then came a real thriller with Deneen coming through with 16 and Higgins collecting the rebounds; we edged out Brockton by 5 points. The team put on the most brilliant show of the season only to drop an even tougher one to Attleboro the preceding Tuesday, although Densmore and Higgins put in their best games of the season. So there it is — a race down the floor, a long tough grind for our Raiders, who, with the hard fighting they've displayed in the past few games and the skill they've acquired through their experiences in the best of teams in Eastern Massachusetts, should prove to be quite a match for the boys from Quincy.

So let's congratulate our Varsity for keeping their chin up through so difficult a season!

TRACK

The Breeze and I

Track is synonymous with year-round sporting events at North. The Indianapolis Race Track has nothing on our front-yard triangle in the spring and fall outdoor practices what with the heavy traffic of accelerated speed demons whizzing around the course. Just about the time when Jack Frost bites the air with the warning: "Either run with no breather between events or freeze to death," the boys desert the yard to the snow ploughs, enter the building, and climb the stairway to Heaven, where far from providing an angelic accompaniment they, quite the contrary, serenade the teachers burning the midnight oil with pounding drum beats to the rhythm of their squad maneuvers.

Let no one doubt, though, that all these practice sessions don't pay off, for we have as witness the scores at the meets in the East Newton Street Amory.

Varsity Baseball

BASEBALL

Hit and Run

The thoughts of our young men at North are turned to baseball all year round even though the frozen ground postpones actual practicing until the spring. As soon as friend Ground Hog has poked his head out of his winter hole, the potential hitters, catchers, and pitchers can no longer control the urge to slug, signal, and curve that all important sphere over that equally important home bag. In conclusion, we might add, there are no holes in our guys' bats!

GOLF

Fore!

Maybe you didn't know that those tanned fellas who get dismissed early are our golf team and that through their efforts our trophy case has had regular additions. It's no easy job swinging the club in perfect form making that minute nucleus drop into a tiny hole half a mile distant, but coach "Jack's" boys do it every time.

Tennis Team

TENNIS

The Net Result

When the sun is higher in the sky and the birds are chirping with more abandon, a young man's fancy lightly turns to love. And North's tennis team is no exception with the net result that North's boys always aspire to the scoring end of every match that leaves their opponents nothing but love: the poor scoreless victims!

GIRLS' SPORTS

Feminine Sharpshooters

It's Tuesday P.M. — a hundred and some odd females gather together under the direction of Miss McCoy to try their skill at scoopin', the ball that is, into their chosen hoop. Four-minute fun-raising periods of frolic and fight cheered on by the boys who excuse their presence by a: "They watch us play!" But the girls give quite a show with their tricky quick-stepping passes and fancy lay-ups. So for the attraction, we'll have the Slippery Six vs. the Finketts — to you the professionals vs. the amateurs — and you don't have to go any further than North's gym for an enthusiastic exhibition of sportsmanship and fun.

CHEER LEADERS

"Sis Bah . . . Who's the Star?" —

So goes the familiar cry of North's eight faithful followers. From the first gridiron battle until the gun is fired ending the fourth quarter of our final hooping contest, our cheerleaders are present, witnessing each motion of our hard-fighting Raiders, leading the rooters in cheers, and giving our athletes the inspiration to conquer! However, to prepare, one must practice, and to practice is painful for the girls. But how practice pays off, when into a round circle our Cheerleaders go to hear last night's gossip about the puzzling mixture of Seniors, Juniors and Frosh, told by the most able of story tellers.

FOUR WHEELS

Ken, "D", Ellie, Bernie make the world go 'round. Where there's one, there are the other three also.

Talk about hard-working quartets! Their schedule is an ever-turning axis of intellectual and social plans. Their accomplishments are their plans in action, the world of memories we seniors shall ever cherish.

IT REMAINS

June 1953 with its warm sunlight beckoning us to "take to the open road," with its blue waters of Quincy Bay inveigling us to "wade with naked feet along the beach," with its festival of climbing red roses telling us to be "done with indoor complaints," and with its Manet enticing us to thumb the pages of happy memories, the satisfying miracles of the wonderfulness of our senior year at North Quincy High — such is June 1953 to our classmates.

But to us, the harried Manet staff, what is June 1953? To us it is The Manet in its literal translation: "It remains." Our sanity after metamorphoses and deadlines — it remains! Our good nature after pictorial hubbubs and financial stresses — it remains! Our precious friendship, one with another, after minor disagreements and diplomatic rearrangements — it remains!

And The Manet for 1953 as a memory book of a year's activities from dawn to dusk — it remains too!

Entering room 126 is rocketing yourself into a wonder world of female activity.

With Miss Melanson and Miss McCoy, co-pilots supreme, embryo plans in 126 developed into a fall romp at Houghron's Pond, a jolly Santa Claus workshop and Christmas festival in the auditorium, a bubbling splash party at the "Y", epicurean Thanksgiving and Christmas boxes for The Family Welfare Society, a gossamer dream-world Valentine semi-formal, and a Norib's a Poppin' Revue, part of the proceeds from which eased the individual cost of our 1953 Manors.

MARTIAL MUSIC MEN

Our first fling of the fall football season saw the band dressed to kill in their new $35 brass buttons. If that wasn't enough, they had a new beat, to boot, with a snappier, slicker step!

This was their year of firsts: the first senior band without seniors (more junior high members than senior highers); first time a North band has actually "marched down the field to the music"; first time a band has played at a religious Thanksgiving program.

As band enthusiasm grows among the underclassmen, we '53ers are sure North's future bands will have many more wonderful firsts.

Prancing Parade

Dum dum — dum dum —, da de a de um dum — and they're off behind gold and red plumes, keeping time with those innocent, shimmering things that tease you and leap from you at the worst times. Every leg the same color, every feather the same height, every skirt swirling, and every heart beating louder than the bass-drum, Saturdays bring bouncing black and red uniforms on green grass, backbends, splits, and fancy twirls.

You just never know what the Glee Club will undertake next. Whatever it is, it's sure to "make good music" all because of Miss Fitts' efforts and those of forty-eight golden voices.

PENCIL, PAPER, PEDAL- PUSHERS, and CHINOS

You're right, underclassmen. It isn't Saturday, but Senior Class Day: the one day of the year when the seniors can stroll nonchalantly along North's corridors in Saturday sport clothes, fondling dolls of yesteryear, lapping all-day suckers, and looking forward to an evening of roast beef and Stardust.

Above: Do we dare?

CUTTIN' OUT and CUTTIN' UP

The committee arrives! A few at a time seat themselves, pool ideas, and it's chowtime already! The ambitious few cut, paste, paint, and staple so our decorations might be the most attractive of the season. Others might be found engaging in any type of activity — "Game for some ball?" . . . "Your shoe's filled with duz!" . . . Community sing and dreamy dancin' . . . "Out with the Juniors!" . . . "Got my joke book?" . . .

Such are the backstage preparations for our senior dances.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

"Emerald Cotillion!"

"No, no one knows what a cotillion is, and besides you can't decorate well with green. There aren't enough shades."

"But 'Rhapsody in Blue' is so common and blue's a cold color. Green makes you think of spring."

"Emerald Cotillion" won though, and we danced in a green wonder land for the best prom ever.

NEVER A DULL MOMENT

COUNCIL CAPERS

Down beat! Miss Enos directing! And the year was started with book-cover sales. Next the council high stepped into the Red Feather Campaign, took a break at Christmas time for Mistletoe Magic after it had rearranged the "Hallowed Halls" with the Traffic Squad.

Then it marched to the beat of 1090 dimes and ended to the tune of a mahogany masterpiece for the auditorium.

WHAT FOR A PANEL?

The answer to the $64 question is the Library Book Recommendation Committee under the direction of Miss Sherman. The members spend hours reading recent books, and as a reward for a favorable report, their recommended book becomes the library's new "find."

"If you say so, John!"

THE CANDLES ARE LIGHTED

LITERARY LASSIES

At 2:29 P.M. the members of the Library Staff man their stations and prepare for the onslaught of students looking for history books, crime pamphlets, and a little red book by "John What's-his-name".

The girls met their co-workers and sponsors, Miss Sherman and Miss Countie, at a Get-Acquainted Party in the fall. Soon they were passing out study slips, filing books in and out, and performing all the functions necessary to keep the library running smoothly. The girls donned their hostess aprons for the Mothers' and Teachers' Tea in the spring. A busy year ended with a picnic complete with cokes, franks, and ants.

TRI-TRIFULS

A bit of everything — balance makes for appreciation! Planning, service, education, and recreation! One week the girls plan the month's program, the next week they contribute staples for Quincy's needy, and the following Monday eve the club is hostess to a dynamic speaker, whose mixture of philosophy and anecdote holds the girls spellbound.

However, the piece de resistance is recreation night, what with tingling splash parties, Chinese auctions, hops with Helen to spin and dedicate, or golden stage shows spiked with the hilarious antics of the new girls.

HI-HIGH JINKS

Hi-Y spells ping-pong tournaments, table-hockey competition, movies, lectures, lots of ribbing wise cracks, and no women.

Yes, you doubting Thomases, if you want to know how self-sufficient mere man can be without his feminine counterpart, look in on North's jovial Hi-Y boys any hilarious Thursday night at the Washington Street "Y." Eric, our adviser, keeps activity humming from start to finish of every session.

What? You guessed it, we're not standoffish, we date on Friday nights — North girls too.

Lady with the Lamp

The '53 Nurses' Career Club got off to a roaring start with a bon fire picnic — were the uninvited guests future doctors? — a sporting scheme for assistance to the injured football heroes — wonder why the coaches frowned on this benevolence? — and rewarding tours through intern-populated hospital training schools around Boston.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Edison has not arrived in Room 201. Neither has the Massachusetts Child Labor Act. Of course, that clock really doesn't read 9. It only looks that way. But, strange as it may seem, one process has arrived. The A. B. Dick Company, manufacturer of mimeographs, never visualized one of its machines going one sheet an hour. But then, neither did the editors,

But, alas, the snows of yesterday have melted, and some new fangled way of printing has come out so that no more can the fine exercise of turning a crank be enjoyed. Oh well, some day they may invent the linotype. By the way, did you really read it?

KEEP TO THE RIGHT

Yes, double time is barred, pushing is illegal, and shouting is unheard of at North where "Keep to the Right" is the password.

But to whom goes the credit? The Traffic Squad — everybody knows!

Right: Now will you slide down the bannister again?

Below: Who wouldn't feel welcome?

ALL IN A DAY'S WORK

Not to be outdone by modern business, North inaugurated this year 11th and 12th grade girl receptionists whose helpful and tireless guidance to both professional and social visitors typifies the cheerfulness of one of the girls herself: "Keep smiling; it's good for the waistline."

Unsheath Instruments!

No. Not scalpels. Just tongues. The incision is made as easily with the barbs as with the blade, and, after all, the dissecting needle is usable both on people and on animals. After a few heady draughts of formaldehyde anyone is ready for a go at discussing the workings of the human brain or the private life of Piscatoria democratiana (queer fish). Unsheath instruments!

Zoological "bugs"

STAND CLEAR!

"Don't point that rifle at me!" "How about running down and straightening my target?" . . . "What, are you crazy?" "I want to live; I'm still young" . . . Bang, Bang, Thud. "Ooops — the last one hit the dust." "Ten more points and I'll have another bar." . . . Such jargon is all part of the fun and noise at the Squantum School on Tuesday nights.

It's this way

BUCKET and BRUSH

"I never did see a man with a blue face . . . but that's art for you." "All those pink chickens with green polka dots." "What's the matter with you, can't you tell it's a beetle in a sand piddle?"

No, dear reader, we are not on an excursion through Paris famed Louvre; we are right here in room 329 amid the exhibitions of some of the best high-school talent in New England.

Your name is

"Four and Twenty Blackbirds"

Oh, pity the future husband who receives one of our future homemakers. "Just can't understand how that salt could have been mistaken for sugar. Wonder why that cake didn't rise after all that beating . . . what do you mean, baking powder?" "If you take three dollars from the budget and buy a new hat, who'll ever know the difference?" Pies made of dreams, cakes of hopes, and cookies with a high-heart!

All kidding aside, every attempt of North's F. H. A. girls is a dainty dish fit to set before a king.

Camera Shy

Among Our Loyal Supporters

Do you like? I hope so! Now that all the work, worry, and waiting are over, the staff is rather partial to it. I want to thank the crowds of people who helped make that January pile of papers a book, and it's no surprise that I know exactly where to begin! I propose a rising vote of thanks and three rousing cheers for the one person who was always there when I needed him and who somehow always knew what to do — Mr. Hofferty! "Merci Beaucoup," "Gracias," and good old American "Thanks" to Miss Gormley, Miss Tolchinsky, and the commercial staff who surely had a job to do, to Mr. Bridges and his "Camera Clan" who many a morning were greeted by a harassed editor begging them to get a picture of this or that, to Mr. Bleiler who helped us over many bumps in the road with his originality, to Mr. O'Neill whose publishing know-how lightened the staff's challenges, to Miss Acker and Miss Morrison who kept our thousands safe, to our alumnus, John Moore, who certainly knows when to click that shutter, and to those "Super Suzies," the Girls' Club, who always are so generous.

It was my luck to have a wonderful crew of editors. The passwords were "Cute, Clever, and Catchy" with Jane Sullivan heading the writers. Who else but Les Moore could have planned all those original layouts? With Jim Knight caring for the cash it was bigger and better business! Thanks, kids! You know, all the staffs did a remarkable job. You Money Makers had me overwhelmed, and you Typing Tessies plus a Ted did a grand job, not to mention that mob of Mad Penmen who certainly showed originality plus. Thanks gang! Thanks everybody!

When we leave these hallowed halls in a matter of days I hope you will all be lucky enough to enjoy success in whatever you do, whether you be found on a campus, in an office, or in a uniform. Its been "more fun than people!" Best of everything, kids!

Dotty Young
Editor in Chief
